Festival of Wreaths People's Choice Awards

“Country Bells” was the recipient of the 2016 Festival of Wreaths People's Choice Award. This 24” lighted grapevine wreath breathes country charm. Evergreen needles and three large hydrangeas are artfully arranged with a plaid bow at the base. The finishing touch are jingle bells. This wreath was donated by the 1880 Bank and crafted by Lisa Neild. The wreath also received Business & Professional Choice Awards for Chesapeake Woods Center and the National Outdoor Foundation, Inc.

This year's Money Wreath, crafted by Phyllis Smith, stars Santa front and center, surrounded by everyone's favorite gift—cold, hard cash. The fresh bills were supplied by the SunTrust Bank.

“Dr. Seuss Who?” was the title of the wreath that won the second place People's Choice Award. On this lighted 4' half-tree, crafted by Chris Murphy Harrison, are some Seuss characters that have entertained us for decades. There are lollipops, presents and even the Grinch. This half-tree also earned the Dorchester Family YMCA, Eastern Shore AHEC, and 1880 Bank Business & Professional Choice Awards.

Titled “Home For Christmas”, Julie Bryan's lighted 4' half-tree gives us a cozy view of homes decorated for Christmas. Deep drifts and snow blanketed trees make everyone glad to be inside for the holidays. This half-tree garnered the third place People's Choice Award and was donated by Faith Baptist Fellowship.
